Biographical Note

Clarence Luther Forsling (1893-1981), a native of Cheyenne, Wyoming, graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1915 and began a long career with the U. S. Forest Service. He directed the Great Basin Experiment Station from 1922 until 1929, when he founded and directed the Intermountain Regional Experiment Station. He directed the Appalachian Forest Experiment Station from 1934 until 1937, and in 1935 spent three months in Europe as an Oberlaender Trust Fellow. From 1937 to 1944, Forsling served as U. S. Forest Service Assistant Chief in Charge of Research, and in 1944 he became the Director of the Grazing Service. When the Grazing Service merged with the General Land Office in 1946 to form the U. S. Bureau of Land Management, Forsling continued to work as a special assistant to the secretary of the Interior until 1953. He settled in Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he served as Director of Forest and Watershed Research for the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation (1956-1958), and served the State of New Mexico as Chief Tax Commissioner (1955-1956) and member of the State Parks and Recreation Committee (1963-1969). Forsling authored and co-authored many government publications and articles in professional journals on the topics of range management, grazing, and watersheds.

Note: Biographical information drawn from materials in this collection and from an obituary notice titled "Ex-Forest Service Official Dies" in the October 10, 1981 edition of the Albuquerque Journal (Albuquerque, New Mexico).

Collection Overview

The collection includes materials documenting Clarence Luther Forsling's professional career with the U. S. Forest Service, the U. S. Department of the Interior, and the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation. The collection consists of such items as correspondence, memoranda, photographs, field diaries, reports, research notes, drafts for a presumably unpublished manuscript authored by Forsling on water supply in the arid Southwest, and copies of more than fifty articles and speeches delivered by Forsling. Some biographical records and records pertaining to his interests unrelated to forestry are also included.

Collection Arrangement

During processing of the collection, paper materials in a deteriorating condition were removed from the collection and replaced with preservation photocopies, and twelve manuscript boxes filled with general publications dating from 1930 to 1979 relating to forestry topics but not clearly pertaining to Forsling's research were withdrawn from the collection.

5. Research, 1936-1965. 7 archival boxes

7 archival boxes

Includes materials related to research conducted by C. L. Forsling on topics related to forestry, natural resources, and land management.

5.1. Bibliographic Cards, undated. About 2000 cards

Includes index cards containing bibliographical references. Includes approximately 1000 cards arranged alphabetically by author and approximately 1000 cards arranged alphabetically by subject. Topics include: annual reports; bibliographies; books; botany; climate; erosion and sedimentation; evaporation/transpiration/interception; fish and wildlife recreation; fire, water, soils, and vegetation; forest management; general; geological investigations; grazing relationships; hydrocycle/hydrology; instrumentation and methodology; land management; effects of logging; miscellaneous problems of water; miscellaneous information; plant culture; precipitation/streamflow/forecasting; range management; root studies; snow fall and pack; soil, water, and vegetation; treatment of watersheds; vegetation and soil types; water resources; and watershed management.

Box 10 Folder 10.2

Bibliographical Cards, undated

5.2. New Mexico, 1936-1965.

Includes climatological data, maps, data tables, memoranda, reports, correspondence, photographs, and publications pertaining to land management and water conservation in the state of New Mexico. Folders are arranged alphabetically by topic.

Box 11

Folder 11.1

Climate Data, January to December 1963

Includes monthly climatological data for New Mexico.

Folder 11.2

Climate Data, January to December 1964

Includes monthly climatological data for New Mexico.

Folder 11.3

Embudo Watershed, 1962

Includes publication relating to a pilot planning project for the Embudo Watershed of New Mexico and a letter to C. L. Forsling regarding the Pack Foundation's role in the project.

Folder 11.4

Erosion, 1936-1955

Includes thirteen short publications originally assigned with "WM -- Erosion -- 8" as a folder label.

Folder 11.5

Land: Public, 1958-1960>

Includes large folded map, memoranda, and data tables on federally-owned lands managed by the U.S. Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Department of Defense, U.S. National Park Service, and other agencies.

Folder 11.6

Land: Public, Population Data Tables, 1961

Includes handwritten data tables and a 1961 estimate of the state's population by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of New Mexico.

Folder 11.7

Land: Resources, 1959

Includes three publications on New Mexico land resources, grazing national forests, and Taylor grazing lands.

Box 12

Folder 12.1

Land: Southwest Research Institute Reports, 1956-1957

Includes seven progress reports by the Southwest Research Institute on the Economic Analysis and Evaluation of the Utilization of the Land Resources of the State of New Mexico.

Folder 12.2

Municipal Waste/Sewage, 1957-1962

Includes 1957 inventory, 1962 correspondence on sanitation, announcement and program of seventh annual New Mexico water conference.

Folder 12.3

Salt Cedar, 1951

Includes report of the Salt Cedar Interagency Task Force (chaired by C. L. Forsling).

Box 13

Folder 13.1

United States Soil Conservation Service, 1959-1965

Includes correspondence and pamphlet regarding progress in soil and water conservation in New Mexico.

Folder 13.2

United States Soil Conservation Service: Photographs, 1957-1961

Includes United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service photographs. Eight captioned photographs from New Mexico Soil Conservation Districts.

Folder 13.3

Water Report, 1951

Includes Final Research Report to the State of New Mexico Economic Development Commission: Water Resources Development. By C. R. Holmes and William Hume, II.

Folder 13.4

Water Supply, 1957-1962

Includes four short publications, handwritten and typed chapter on New Mexico water supply and requirements, and handwritten notes.

Folder 13.5

Maps, undated

Includes five maps of New Mexico (driving, topographical, and others).

5.3. Water Supply in the Arid Southwest, 1942-1965.

Includes files relating to a manuscript C. L. Forsling prepared tentatively titled "Water Supply in the Arid Southwest" that presumably was never published. Folders are arranged alphabetically by topic, with the exception of the first three folders, which contain material explaining the scope and organization of the manuscript, and the final folder, which contains miscellaneous material.

Box 13

Folder 13.6

Manuscript: Introduction, undated

Includes eight typed pages titled "Chapter I -- Introduction" on water supply in the arid Southwest.

Folder 13.7

Manuscript: Outlines, 1958

Includes outlines and project description for "Watersheds and Water Supply in New Mexico."

Folder 13.8

Manuscript: References to Be Checked, 1957-1959

Includes correspondence and partial bibliographies of water sources.

Folder 13.9

Arizona: Water Resources, 1957-1961

Includes Arizona water resources committee report and memorandum concerning research projects of the Arizona State Land Department.

Folder 13.10

Arizona: Miscellaneous Notes, 1957-1959

Includes correspondence, irrigation data, and reports on Soil Conservation Districts Law in Arizona.

Folder 13.11

Climate and Water Supply: Chapter, undated

Includes typed "VIII - Climate and Water Supply."

Folder 13.12

Climate and Plant Growth: Notes, undated

Includes map and handwritten notes for chapter on Climate and Plant Growth.

Folder 13.13

Consumptive Use: Notes, 1958

Includes data tables, handwritten notes, and correspondence.

Folder 13.14	Floods: Notes, 1954-1959	Includes excerpts from three sources.
Folder 13.15	Ground Water Resources: Notes, undated	Includes excerpt from draft of state engineers report; typed pages titled "Ground Water Resources"; notes on the types of ground water source areas in New Mexico; memorandum for the files; paper on use of ground water in Arizona (Harshbinger); handwritten notes; and a map of drainage basins and stream flow in New Mexico.
Box 14
Folder 14.1	Effects of Factors Inherent in the Watershed: Notes, 1957	Includes handwritten notes explaining organization of chapters; typed "Chapter VIII: Climate and Water"; notes on precipitation, water supply, water requirements, and consumptive use; and data table of surface water resources in New Mexico.
Folder 14.2	Evaluation of Watershed Programs: Chapter, undated	Includes typed chapter on "Evaluation of Various Watershed Conservation Programs" and handwritten draft.
Folder 14.3	Erosion: Channel Photographs, 1957	Includes 28 captioned black and white photographs.
Folder 14.4	Erosion/Sedimentation: Chapter, undated	Includes typed "Chapters 9 and 10: Sedimentation and Erosion."
Folder 14.5	Erosion/Sedimentation/Floods: Notes, 1957-1961	Includes correspondence, handwritten notes, typewritten memorandum for the files, two papers on control of silt and sediment.
Folder 14.6	Experimental Watersheds and Forests, 1942-1957	Includes seven publications, all marked "WM - Exp. Watersheds and Forests Box 20."
Folder 14.7	Frail Watersheds, 1963-1965	Includes memoranda, maps, news releases, statements on need for protection of frail watersheds, and United States Bureau of Land Management position on frail watersheds.
Folder 14.8	Geology of Watersheds: Notes, undated	Includes handwritten notes.
Folder 14.9	Hydrology: Notes, 1957-1958	Includes correspondence, irrigation data, and five typed pages for Watershed Hydrology Chapter VII.

Folder 14.10	Maps, undated	Includes maps of the American Southwest, river basins, and New Mexico.
Box 15
Folder 15.1	Municipal Water: Requirements and Supply, Notes, 1957-1958	Includes typed and handwritten notes; completed questionnaires on municipal water by Las Cruces and Silver City, New Mexico; cartoon pamphlet on water in Albuquerque, New Mexico; correspondence; data tables; questions about geologic survey; and a paper presented at New Mexico water conference.
Folder 15.2	New Mexico Lands: Chapter, undated
Folder 15.3	Public Lands, 1946-1959	Includes memoranda, newspaper clippings, handwritten notes, data tables, copy of C. L. Forsling's "Proposed Policy for Vacant Lands", and printings of Taylor Grazing Act and amendments.
Folder 15.4	Private Ownership of Watershed Lands, undated	Includes typed, untitled paper advocating private ownership of watershed lands, describing different types of ownership.
Folder 15.5	River Basins: Canadian River, Notes, 1958	Includes mostly typed, notes for "Chapter III Watersheds of the State (Canadian River Watershed)."
Folder 15.6	River Basins: Pecos River Basin, Notes, 1958
Folder 15.7	River Basins: Rio Grande, Notes, 1958	Includes notes, mostly typed, on geology, soils, climate of the Rio Grande Basin; paper on Albuquerque, New Mexico's, land problem; excerpts of and notes on some publications; and correspondence.
Folder 15.8	Root Studies, undated	Includes preliminary paper on advances in botanical methods of prospecting for uranium, marked with filing instructions "WM -- root studies -- 15."
Folder 15.9	Stepping Stones to Watershed Management: Chapter, undated
Folder 15.10	Stepping Stones: Draft, 1959	Includes drafts, memorandum for the files, and a paper entitled "What Research needs to do to help the Watershed Manager."
Folder 5.11	Vegetation Types of New Mexico: Chapter, undated	Includes handwritten and typed chapter, titled "Vegetation Types of New Mexico and their Relation to Water Yield."

Folder 15.12

Water-Soil-Vegetation Relationships: Chapter, undated

Includes typed chapter and handwritten data tables.

Box 16

Folder 16.1

Water-Soil-Vegetation Relationships: Notes, undated

Includes typed drafts, handwritten notes, data tables, graphs, outlines for chapters on vegetation and water relationships.

Folder 16.2

Water Conservation, a Function of Land Ownership, undated

Includes handwritten chapter (different text from "Private Ownership of Watershed Lands").

Folder 16.3

Water Law: Publications, 1954-1959

Includes paper by Robert Emmet Clark on the Pueblo Rights Doctrine; paper by J. E. Sturrock, general manager of the Texas Water Conservation Association on "Upstream Development Versus Downstream Water Rights"; and a paper by Charles Harris, "Ground Water Law in New Mexico."

Folder 16.4

Yield: Notes, 1958

Includes handwritten notes and graph; paper by P. B. Rowe, hydrologist with the California Forest and Range Experiment Station, on "Tests of Applied Watershed Management to Increase Water Yield, San Dimas Experimental Forest"; and unattributed paper, "The Growth of the Concept of the Manipulation of Plant Cover on Watersheds to Improve Water Yield."

Folder 16.5

Miscellaneous Notes Regarding Manuscript, undated

Includes handwritten notes on irrigation, infiltration, hydrology, groundwater, pollution, and other topics; draft of "Effects of Fire on Watershed" by William Ridgely Chapline and Murrell Williams Talbot, watershed management consultants with the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation; correspondence; and announcement of publication on New Mexico climate; and other materials.

6. Publications, 1919-1968. 3 archival boxes

3 archival boxes

Includes publications and speeches by C. L. Forsling.

6.1. Grazing Examiner, 1919-1922.

Includes collection of publications written by C. L. Forsling during the period when he worked as a grazing examiner. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 16

Folder 16.6

Forsling, C. L. Chopped Soapweed as Emergency Feed for Cattle on Southwestern Ranges. USDA Bulletin No. 745. Washington, D.C.: U.S. Department of Agriculture, 1919. 20 pp.

- Folder 17.2 Forsling, C. L. "Erosion on Uncultivated Lands in the Intermountain Region." Scientific Monthly 34 (April 1932): 311 - 321. Article reprint.
- Folder 17.3 Forsling, C. L., and George Stewart. "Management of Uncultivated Lands." In Proceedings of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference. S. 1.: n. p., 1933. 177 - 182 pp. Reprint.
- Folder 17.4 Forsling, C. L. "The Water Conservation Problem in Forestry." Journal of Forestry 31 (February 1933): 177 - 182. Article reprint.
- Originally presented at teh 32nd annual meeting of the Society of American Foresters held in San Francisco, California, December 14-16, 1932.
- Folder 17.5 Forsling, C. L. "Maintaining Forage Production on the Range." National Wool Grower 24 (May 1934): 1-6.
- Originally presented as an address at the annual convention of the National Wool Growers Association in Salt Lake City, Utah, January 18, 1934.
- Folder 17.6 Bailey, Reed W., C. L. Forsling, and R. J. Becraft. Floods and Accelerated Erosion in Utah. USDA Miscellaneous Publication No. 196. Washington, D. C.: U. S. Government Printing Office, 1934. 21 pp.
- Folder 17.7 Forsling, C. L. "Erosion: A Challenge to America." The Utah Juniper. Logan, Utah: Utah Foresters, Utah State Agricultural College, 1934. 4-8 pp.

This volume dedicated to C. L. Forsling.

6.4. Director, Appalachian Forest Experiment Station, 1937.

Includes publications written by C. L. Forsling authored during the period in which he served as director of the U. S. Forest Service's Appalachian Forest Experiment Station. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

- Box 17 Folder 17.8 Forsling, C. L." European Forestry -- Methods and Practices -- And How These Methods Can Be Applied to Southern Forests." Paper for annual meeting of the Southern Agricultural Workers, Nashville, Tennessee, 3 February 1937. 8 pp.

6.5. Assistant Chief, U. S. Forest Service Research, 1937-1944.

Includes publications written by Forsling authored during the period in which he was employed as Assistant Chief in charge of Research for the U. S. Forest Service. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 17

- Folder 17.9 Forsling, C. L. "Stabilizing Streamflow as Viewed by a Forester." Paper read before a joint meeting of the Society of American Foresters, the Hydrology Section of the American Geophysical Union, and Section M of the AAAS, 22 June 1937. 12 pp.

Includes paper abstract and correspondence relating to ordering reprints.

- Folder 17.10 Forsling, C. L. "Vegetative Aspects of Erosion Control in the West." Taken from the symposium on "Some Aspects of Vegetative Methods of Erosion Control," annual meeting of the American Society of Agronomy, December 1937. 7 pp. 2 copies. Includes symposium program.

- Folder 17.11 Craddock, G. W., and C. L. Forsling. The Influence of Climate and Grazing on Spring-Fall Sheep Range in Southern Idaho. Technical Bulletin No. 600. Washington, D. C.: U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1938. 42 pp.
- Folder 17.12 Forsling, C. L. "A Look Ahead." Journal of Forestry 36 (September 1938): 920-922. Article reprint.
- Folder 17.13 "Science and Forestry -- Science Looks at Grazing on Forest Lands." A discussion by [four leading experts, including C. L. Forsling] broadcast in the Department of Agriculture's portion of the National Farm and Home Hour, May 8, 1940, over the National Broadcasting Company's Blue Network. 5 pp.
- Folder 17.14 "Conservation of the Forest Resources of the Americas." Presented before Eighth American Scientific Congress 13 May 1940 in Washington, D. C. 95-102 pp. [14 pp. total].
- Includes 2 published copies and 1 typed copy.
- Folder 17.15 Forsling, C. L. "Snow Melt and Floods." Based upon notations written on typed manuscript, this paper presumably published in the USDA Yearbook (s.l.: n.p., 1941.). 7 pp.
- Folder 17.16 Forsling, C. L. "Water Utilization." Based upon notations written on typed manuscript, this paper presumably published in the USDA Yearbook (s.l.: n.p., 1941.). 8 pp.
- Folder 17.17 Forsling, C. L. "What's in the Forest." Talk by Forsling, Assistant Chief of U. S. Forest Service, at the Cosmos Club in Washington, D. C., on 17 March 1941 9p.
- Includes two versions: one typed on paper and one typed on note cards.
- Folder 17.18 Forsling, C. L. "Significance of Forestry in our Relations with the Latin American Republics." Address delivered at meeting of the Society of American Foresters in Jacksonville, Florida, in December 1941.
- Includes 3 versions: 1 typed on paper, 1 typed on 15 note cards, and 1 version "condensed from Journal of Forestry for February" titled "Significance of Forestry in Inter-American Relations" and published in Conservation 8 (March-April 1941): 35-39.
- Folder 17.19 Forsling, C. L. "The Role of Western Hemisphere Forests in the War and Reconstruction After the War." Presented at Second Inter-American Conference on Agriculture, Mexico City, July 6-16, 1942. Read by I. T. Haig. 16 pp.
- Folder 17.20 Forsling, C. L. "The Future of South and Central American Forest Resources." Presented at New York Section meeting of the Society of American Foresters in Albany, New York, 26 January 1943. 8 pp.
- Folder 17.21 Forsling, C. L. Review of: Sampling Methods in Forestry and Range Management, by F. X. Schumacher and R. A. Chapman. Durham, N. C.: School of Forestry, Duke University, 1942. Review published in Journal of the American Statistical Association 39 (March 1944): 122-123.
- Folder 17.22 Forsling, C. L. "Where is Research Going." Presented at Southern Forestry Conference held in Atlanta, Georgia, 19-20 January 1944. 15 pp.
- Folder 17.23 Forsling, C. L. "Forest Research." Statement to the Joint Congressional Committee on Forestry, at hearings in Washington, D. C., n.d. 12 pp.

Folder 17.24 Forsling, C. L. "Economic Value of More Favorable Public Attitudes and Habits With Respect To Conservation of Forest Resources." Typed paper; date unknown. 6 pp.

6.6. Director of Grazing, 1944-1947.

Includes publications written by C. L. Forsling authored during the period that he held the appointment of director of the U. S. Grazing Service. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 17

Folder 17.25 Forsling, C. L. "Further Development of the Federal Range Lands." Prepared for the annual meeting of the Mountain States Association, held in Denver, Colorado, November 13-14, 1944. 9 pp.

Folder 17.26 Forsling, C. L. "What Changes in the Distribution of Grazing Privileges Would Aid Most the National Economic Development and Also be Most Equitable to the Various Groups?" Prepared for presentation at the U. S. Department of the Interior Institute for the Discussion of Major Postwar Resource Problems to be held in the Secretary's Conference Room, Interior Building, November 5-9, 1945. 7 pp.

Folder 17.27 Forsling, C. L. "But These Things Did Not Come In A Day." Address before the Idaho Cattlemen's Association, Boise, Idaho, on April 11, 1946. 8 pp.

Folder 17.28 Forsling, C. L. "Wild Land Use in the Present Economy of the Greater Intermountain Region." Paper prepared for delivery at the annual meeting of the Society of American Foresters held in Salt Lake City, Utah, September 11-14, 1946. 7 pp.

Includes typed speech and handwritten draft.

Folder 17.29 Forsling, C. L. "The Resources of the Land and Their Conservation in the Pacific North West Region." A statement prepared by Forsling at the request of Assistant Secretary Davidson, U. S. Department of the Interior. 50 pp.

Includes explanatory correspondence from C. L. Forsling to Davidson dated 29 November 1946.

6.7. Special Assistant to the United States Secretary of the Interior, 1947-1953.

Includes publications written by C. L. Forsling authored during the period that he served as special assistant to the U. S. secretary of the Interior. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 18

Folder 18.1 Forsling, C. L. "A Proposed Program for the Vacant, Unappropriated, and Unreserved Domain in the Continental United States." Drafts dated September 1948 (19 pp.), 15 August 1948 (50 pp.), and 15 July 1948 (35 pp.).

Includes several drafts of different sections, a memorandum outlining goals, and some handwritten notes.

Folder 18.2 Forsling, C. L. "Areas of Research Needed in the Southwest." Paper prepared for delivery at a New Mexico conference on industrial development held in Albuquerque, New Mexico, 1 July 1949. 16 pp.

Folder 18.3 Forsling, C. L. "The Rio Grande Valley in New Mexico - Its Present and Future." Journal of Forestry 48 (September 1950): 439-441. Originally presented at a meeting of the Southwestern Section of the Society of American Foresters held in Santa Fe, New Mexico, 24 February 1950.

Folder 18.4 Forsling, C. L. Review of: The Geography of Hunger by Josue de Castro (Boston, Mass.: Little, Brown and Compnay, 1953). Review published in the Journal of Range Management 6 (September 1953): 353-354.

Folder 18.5

6.8. Director of Forest and Watershed Research, Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation, 1956-1959.

Includes publications written by C. L. Forsling authored during the period in which he was director of Forest and Watershed Research for the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 18

Folder 18.5 Forsling, C. L. "The Water Challenge of the Southwest." Delivered at the 12th Annual Meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America, Pacific Grove, California, 30 August 1957. 16 pp.

Folder 18.6 Forsling, C. L. "Notes on New Mexico's Water Problems." Presented at the Second Annual New Mexico Water Conference Program, New Mexico College of A and MA, November 7-8, 1957. Advance copy. 8 pp.

Folder 18.7 Forsling, C. L. "[Untitled]." Notes for Talk on Albuquerque' Flood Problem. January, 1959. 11 pp. Paragraphs in outline form.

Folder 18.8 Forsling, C. L. "Changes in Land and Water Use in New Mexico." Paper prepared for a meeting of the Pacific Southwest Inter-Agency Committee held in Albuquerque, New Mexico, 23 September 1959. 8 pp.

Includes handwritten manuscript and note from typist.

Folder 18.9 Forsling, C. L. "The Lower Watershed - A Major Water-Related Problem in New Mexico." Statement for Senate Select Committee on Water Resources. Submitted in Connection with the Hearings of the Committee in Albuquerque, New Mexico, November 23, 1959). 7 pp.

6.9. Consultant/Independent Work, 1960-1968.

Includes publications written by C. L. Forsling as independent research or while he served as a consultant for various organizations. Publications are described in a bibliographic format. Each file contains a single publication and occasionally includes supporting documents.

Box 18

Folder 18.10 Forsling, C. L. "Biology 179 -- Conservation of Water." Outline of lecture for Friday, June 24, 1960. 6 pp.

Folder 18.11 Forsling, C. L. "Watershed Management to Increase Water Yield." A paper delivered at the Conference on Water Resources in Phoenix, Arizona, on 20 September 1960. 7 pp. Includes draft and "special notes."

- Folder 18.12 Forsling, C. L. "The Educational Role of Colleges and Universities in Watershed Management." Paper prepared for the fifth annual New Mexico Water Conference, New Mexico State University, November 1-2, 1960. 8 pp.
- Folder 18.13 Forsling, C. L. "Watershed Conservation." A paper prepared for delivery at a meeting of the Los Alamos chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America in Los Alamos, New Mexico, January 21, 1961. 12 pp.
- Includes typed and handwritten drafts.
- Folder 18.14 Forsling, C. L. Review of Private Grazing, Public Lands (Chicago, Ill.: University of Chicago Press, 1960), by Wesley Calef. Review published in Journal of Forestry (July 1961). 5 pp.
- Includes earlier (longer) drafts and correspondence.
- Folder 18.15 Forsling, C. L. "Water for Tomorrow." Prepared by C. L. Forsling, February 28, 1962 to be taped for radio broadcast (KHFM). 10 pp.
- Folder 18.16 Forsling, C. L. "Raveling [sic] of Watershed Lands." Prepared for presentation at the 85th meeting of the Southwest Field Committee, U. S. Dept. of the Interior, at Albuquerque, New Mexico, 16 August 1962.
- Folder 18.17 Forsling, C. L. "Ravelling [sic] Watersheds." 14 typed pages.
- Includes copy of the February 1963 edition of American Forests, where article appears on pp. 12-14. Includes correspondence regarding article.
- Folder 18.18 Forsling, C. L. Untitled. Statement of C. L. Forsling at the hearing of the Public Land Law Review Commission in Albuquerque, New Mexico, November 10-11, 1966. 5 pp.
- Folder 18.19 Forsling, C. L. "Bits of History Relating to the Development of Flood Control on the Wasatch Front in Utah." Footnoted paper, 11 pp.

6.10. Bibliographies, undated.

- Includes a list of miscellaneous publications authored by C. L. Forsling.
- Folder 18.20 C. L. Forsling Publications Listed in Bibliographies but not in Files
- Includes a copy of a one-page typed listed of publication by C. L. Forsling not present in files.
