Historical Note

The North Carolina Christmas Tree Association is an organization that unites Christmas tree growers of North Carolina and others having allied interests. Members have the common desire of wishing to promote the interests of the Christmas tree-growing industry in North Carolina. The Association provides a means for the growers to act together for their mutual benefit in any activity related to the production and marketing of Christmas trees. The North Carolina Association is affiliated with the National Christmas Tree Growers' Association, through which it communicates shared interests with other regional associations in the United States.
