

Gifts to the Forest History Society Library 1995/96

Barry Volkers donated a number of items on British Columbia forestry, including the TimberWest annual report for 1995.

Richard Zabel donated ninety-three videocassettes to the library.

Tom Roach, recently returned home to Canada from Africa, sent in several items on forestry and conservation in Kenya, including "A Guide to the Nairobi Arboretum."

Will Sarvis provided a copy of his article, "The Potts Valley Branch Railroad and Tri-State Incline Lumber Operation in West Virginia and Virginia, 1892-1932."

Jerry Williams, with the U.S. Forest Service in Oregon, donated a copy of his book written with Stephen R. Mark, Establishing and Defending the Cascade Range Forest Reserve.

Les Joslin of Wilderness Associates sent a copy of his book, Uncle Sam's Cabins: A Visitor's Guide to Historic U.S. Forest Service Ranger Stations of the West.

Louise A. Halper, law professor at Washington & Lee University, contributed copies of two articles she has recently published, "The Adirondack Park and the Northern Forest: An Essay on Preservation and Conservation," and "'A Rich Man's Paradise': Constitutional Preservation of New York State's Adirondack Forest, A Centenary Consideration."

Louis J. Schwarz donated several items on North Carolina history, including a 1973 visitor's guide to Biltmore House and Gardens.

Emmett Conway sent in information about charcoal iron furnaces, Indian trading paths, and salt springs in Vinton County, Ohio, as well as photocopies of letters he wrote while serving as a forest ranger at Zaleski State Park during World War II.

Datong Xiong contributed a copy of A History of Forest Science and Technology in China which he edited. Text in Chinese with English Table of Contents.

John Hall of the American Wood Preservers Association donated a copy of the "Proceedings" of the organization's ninetieth annual meeting, 1994.

From Guadaloupe, Anja Nygren sent a copy of her book, Forest, Power, and Development: Costa Rican Peasants in the Changing Environment.

C. Chandrasekharan donated two items, "Report of the International Expert Consultation on Non-Wood Forest Products" (1995), and a book by J. J. W. Coppen, Flavours and Fragrances of Plant Origin.

The Canadian Council of Foresters donated two publications, Sustainable Forest Management: A Canadian Approach to Criteria and Indicators, and The State of Canada's Forests 1994: A Balancing Act.

Lester A. DeCoster contributed a copy of his book, The Legacy of Penn's Woods: A History of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Forestry.

Char Miller of Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, sent a copy of his recent article, "How the West Was Won."

David Stark donated a videotape entitled Tickle the Sky: Tree Climbing Stories with Robert Fulghum.

Gil Cooke shared an article, "The Mexico Northwestern Railway System," and a book by Fernando Alcocer Patio, Un Siglo en el Bosque, both discovered while researching the early twentieth century Mexican lumber industry.

Mark Fiege donated a copy of his recent article, "Creating a Hybrid Landscape: Irrigated Agriculture in Idaho."

Michael Pfeiffer of the U.S. Forest Service in Arkansas sent a copy of a paper he co-authored with Roger E. Coleman and Meeks Etchieson entitled "Texas Fever and Free Range Herding in Arkansas: Material Culture of the Federal Tick Eradication Program."

Thomas J. Troughton donated two videotapes, Grandin: The Big Mill & Tall Timber, and Stamp of Character: From Trees to Tracks.

Jerry Sacharski of Albion, Michigan, donated a copy of his reminiscences of the CCC years entitled A Newsy Account of Happy Days During the Period of the Most Lamentable Economic Depression in America's History.

Dr. Helmuth Schrötter of Germany donated a copy of his book, Deutsches Forstwesen in Böhmen, Mähren und Schlesien.

Arthur Allen provided a copy of his article, "Soil Science and Survey at Harvard Forest."

John Polich of San Diego State University donated a travel diary and collection of business cards from a trip by Erick O. Romcke of Melbourne, Australia, to the United States in 1915.

Eduardo Rico Boquete from Spain sent a copy of his book, Politica Forestal Repobocacions en Gailica (1941-1971), as well as a paper he recently presented entitled "The Use of the Forests Space in the Atlantic Europe: The Case of Galicia in the Twentieth Century."

Rob Messick of Union Mills, North Carolina, donated a copy of Nantahala-Pisgah National Forests Old Growth Survey: Citizen Involvement in Old Growth Protection, published by the Western North Carolina Alliance Old Growth Committee, 1995.

Dr. Sven-Eric Appelroth sent copies of four manuscripts concerning forest history in Finland.

Hank Foster contributed information on the forest history holdings of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Archives.

Michael McCloskey donated a copy of his article, "Twenty Years of Change in the Environmental Movement: An Insider's View."

FHS President Harold K. Steen donated an additional sixty-one books to the Forest History Society library in the past year.

Andreas Jordahl Rhude donated a copy of "Structural Glued

Laminated Timber: History of its Origins and Development," a senior thesis in history at the University of Minnesota.

Richard Grove, a fellow at the National Humanities Center, donated two books, Environment and History: The Taming of Nature in the USA and South Africa, by William Beinart and Peter Coates, and Revolution for Nature: From the Environment to the Connatural World, by Klaus Michael Meyer-Abich.

J. Donald Hughes provided the library with copies of four of his recent articles, including "Images of Nature: The Historical Influence on Environmental Destruction."

Maurice Toler of the North Carolina State University Archives donated a copy of James R. Padgett's "Farewell Smokey Bear," an unpublished account of Padgett's career with the U.S. Forest Service from 1952 to 1980.

Ken Drushka from Vancouver, British Columbia, donated two books, the autobiographical Up in the Morning, Out on the Job: The George Dorman Story, and Our Story, by Samuel J. Dumaresq.

Bruce C. Harding, former FHS board member, contributed a number of items focusing on forestry in North America and the growth of the Forest History Society.

In Memoriam

Terry West, Reston, Virginia, December 1995. Head of the USDA Forest Service History Program, editor of History Line, and published author.

DeWitt Nelson, Tacoma, Washington, July 1996. Former California State Forester and past president of the Society of American Foresters.

David A. James, Bainbridge Island, Washington, November 1995. Former FHS Board member, retired vice-president of the Simpson Company, and published writer of forest history.

C. Raymond Clar, Menlo Park, California, March 1996. Past Deputy California State Forester, Fellow of the Forest History Society, and author of many publications related to California history.

Stanley G. Yount, Los Angeles, California. Chairman of Fortifiber Corporation.

Richard P. Delaney, Coos Bay, Oregon, March 1996. He had retired in 1963 following thirty-three years as a forester with the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Join the Forest History Society or Become a Joint Member of the American Society for Environmental History and the Forest History Society

Name _____

Title _____

Company/Institution _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____

Zip _____

Please enroll me as a member in the following category:

Student

$17.50

$25.00 joint ASEH and FSH membership

Individual

$35.00

$50.00 joint ASEH and FSH membership

Supporter

$50-99

$100-499

$500-999

$1000 and up

Library

$60.00

Outside US

$6 for additional postage.

Please pay in U.S. funds.

Enclosed is my check or money order, made payable to the Forest History Society.

Charge $ _____ to my credit card.

VISA MasterCard

CARD NUMBER _____

EXPIRATION DATE _____

SIGNATURE _____